

27plpneu6

Lyonese

14. VI. 91.

Dear Miss Mason

many thanks for your notes & cuttings, from which I am very glad to see that some of the readers were pleased with Lyonese. I found an admirer in St. Vaughan who read it with deep interest & hearty approval etc etc.

Perhaps the Bradford Savants' Union may desire another lecture in the winter & if

27p2pneu6

the Secretary can think of a subject which the members would like to have dealt with I will endeavour to meet their wishes. If I can hear of anything that might suit Miss Miller I will let you know. I fear that the West Riding is not a part of England which is much in touch with the rest of the country.

I met with people at Bournemouth who were much interested in the Parents' Review. I always think it ought to succeed.
The thing that the 'cultivated' mothers are most in doubt about is religion. I am afraid their sons convert them to views wh. are neither 'high' 'low' nor 'broad,' & they are much puzzled. If i7p4pneu6

You could get a paper on the type of Christian character at a modern Public School from the Bp of Peterboro' (Creighton) I think it would be a success

Yours sincerely

J. Cooper

Wm. H. H.
Robt. H.
P. H.
H. H.
H. H.
H. H.
H. H.
H. H.
H. H.
H. H.

18pneu6

5-11-94.

and

Dear Miss Mason,

I am as usual much pressed. I will be with you on Friday next about eight in the eve, and have to leave Sat. at one p.m. I am glad to have made Mr Barnett's acquaintance, an admirable man. Do you think enclosed would do for P.R. It is by a Mrs Gurdon, a sister in law of one of Gladstone's secretaries and a lady of some influence in the eastern counties and in London. She is also sister to Ld Carysfort by marriage. Doubtless her circle would interest themselves in the Mag. However I leave the paper for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,

T. Roper

19p1pneub

8. III. 97

Dear Miss Mason,

Herewith I send you three papers. I have not seen those previously sent & I do not suppose they are on the same lines. My experience as a "Governess" is apparent in them. I hope they may satisfy you.

29p2pneub

As to growth - He is too big for me to tackle. I can reproduce some his lectures, but the British public seems to me in no humour for his philosophy at the present time.

29 p 3 p new 6

Barnard Holland

sums up the present position of the Anglican Church in the current National Review most admirably.

I was at Swanley horticultural college last Saturday.

I think a paper on it would be useful in the Review. I am not clear

19p4pneu6

that it offers a good opening for women - To be a female garden-boy at least seems to me a poor position at a pound a week & even the prospect of a "lodge in a garden of cucumbers" at 30/- (without Adam) seems a poor look out for a daughter of Eve - But still the attempt is bold, well patronised, & not without promise - Yours sincerely J. Rooper

110p1pneub

12 Cumberland Place
Southampton.

6. VI. 97.

My dear Miss Mason,

I am pleased to receive proof in the shape of your letter that you reached home alive after 'such a' week as we have been having! Certainly the proceedings were most remarkable. There was an air of purpose conviction & reality which is to me wholly surprising.

испорченъ

I have been helping to inspect Otter College & was greatly delighted with all I saw. Miss Schofield is most competent & capable & the college has gone far further than is thought in realizing the far reaching idea of its founders.

Just at the moment when the design of the Hubbards & other

110p3pneu6

educationists has become far easier of execution owing to a variety of circumstances -
"improved elementary school system - "improved secondary education - "a desire if not a necessity on the part of ladies to earn their living - just at this juncture when the coping stone might have been soon put in position, this institution owing to miserable squabbles such

W.P. Proulx

as disgrace our cathedral towns is like the Spine collapsing in one sudden fall.

Its renewal will give something other than the old. The grace of carving in the handwork of the medieval carver, the living flowing sappy force of flower & spray will be replaced by the cut & dried (very dry) Training college system in which high success is secured by aiming low.

Do tell me what is to be the nature of the questions you want - what books the students have got up - etc. Yours sincerely W.P. Proulx

24/1/1927

Amey

9. XII. 27.

Dear Miss Mason,

many thanks for cheque. I will try to let you have the questions at the end of the week.

I had a very good meeting at Derby & found some staunch supporters of the movement among the audience. I communicated unappreciated

with Miss Blogg & hope she will manage & give the Bishop a prominent place at the conference.

I found a capital little nursery school at Weybridge on P.N.F.U. lines, but Miss Gilpin is so original in her

210P3meu6

method that I suggested she had better get the help of some student teacher rather than of a ready made assistant.

I am very glad to find your House so flourishing & never saw such an even level of success among the teachers before.

211 p 4 p new 6

The students pass a happy time there
wh. is well spent & no doubt the rising generation will spend a happier childhood than their parents did.

Yours sincerely

Y. Roper